A complete development of a \( q \)-Fourier theory must include a suitable summability theory. Here we will present a preliminary step by introducing a \( q \)-analog of Cesaro summability and then linking it to a \( q \)-version of Hausdorff summability.

References and Literature for Further Reading

